Coronavirus: Legal Guidelines - RUSSIA

In order to cope with the emergency caused by the pandemic spread of the SARS-CoV-2 virus (so-called coronavirus), a series of exceptional rules have been issued in Russia with the aim of, on the one hand, containing the contagion and minimizing the risk of further spread of the Covid-19 disease and, on the other hand, mitigating its negative repercussions on the national economy.

Pavia e Ansaldo has set up a multidisciplinary team of professionals, in order to examine the new emergency legislation in its various fields of application. The aim is to provide targeted support to companies (Italian and Russian that have business relations with Italy) in order to allow orientation in the changed regulatory framework, in relation to both compliance and protection tools aimed at ensuring business continuity.

The Firm has prepared some synthetic information documents, which will be constantly updated in the light of the provisions issued from time to time, on the most relevant topics. La normativa di riferimento, a livello nazionale, può essere visionata cliccando su questo link. Devono, inoltre, essere presi in considerazione i provvedimenti delle Regioni, dei Comuni e dei Prefetti.
