

Pavia e Ansaldo with Assiteca for the expansion in Spain

Madrid, 2 July 2020 - Law Firm Pavia e Ansaldo, with a team made up by the partner responsible for the Barcelona office, Meritxell Roca Ortega, and by the associate Javier Vicente García, assisted the Spanish branch of the listed company Assiteca in the acquisition of Brosacor, insurance broker with offices in Madrid.

Assiteca is the largest Italian insurance broker. It advises its clients in the analysis of risks, intermediation and management of insurance portfolios both at a national and international level. It has offices in Spain (Madrid and Barcelona) since 2009 and from July, 2015 it is listed on the AIM. The transaction represents a further step in Assiteca's strategy of expansion in the Spanish market after strengthening with Grupo Muntadas through the acquisition of Socoupa S.A.

Brosacor Correduría de Seguros is an operator counting on more than 20 years of professional experience, offering a large range of products and specialized services by the main insurance companies of the market. It has offices in Madrid.