NEW APPOINTMENTS AT PAVIA e ANSALDO: MARIANGELA PAPADIA, MARIO NUNZIATA AND TEODORO MALQUORI PROMOTED TO COUNSEL

Milan, 19 April 2023 - The law firm Pavia e Ansaldo announces the promotion to Counsel of Senior Associates Mariangela Papadia, Mario Nunziata and Teodoro Malquori.

The professionals all carry out their activities at the Milan office of the Firm and after this promotion, they will continue to further strengthen their areas of expertise responding to the ever growing needs of the market.

Mariangela Papadia, who is active in the firm's Litigation and Arbitration and Compliance Departments, deals mainly with banking, commercial and bankruptcy litigation as well as follow-on disputes.

She also provides legal assistance on personal data protection and information technology to leading Italian and international companies.

Mario Nunziata works in the Tax Department, advising leading multinational clients on both domestic and international tax issues. He mainly advises on direct and indirect taxes, international and EU taxation, transfer pricing, extraordinary transactions and pre-litigation activities.

He also advises on tax planning of estates, trusts and generational transfers.

Teodoro Malquori, also of the Tax Department, advises national and international clients on tax matters, with particular reference to direct and indirect taxation, transfer pricing, pre-litigation activity, tax and financial due diligence on extraordinary transactions and business valuation. He also gained experience in the tax structuring of transactions and related financing, as well as in the tax review of acquisition agreements.

With these appointments, Pavia e Ansaldo brings to 15 the number of counsels, continuing its path of enhancing its talents and consolidating its position as a firm with a strong multidisciplinary vocation, with the aim of continuing to grow in highly specialised and strategic sectors.
