New promotion for Pavia e Ansaldo’s Japan Desk: Naoko Konishi appointed Counsel

Milan, April 14, 2025 – The Pavia e Ansaldo International Law Firm announces the promotion to Counsel of Naoko Konishi.

The lawyer works primarily at the Milan office as part of the Japan Desk, led by Adriano Villa.

Naoko Konishi joined the firm in 2012 and is active in the Corporate and M&A department, advising Japanese and Italian companies on commercial and corporate law matters. She also has extensive experience in international succession cases.

Pavia e Ansaldo thus consolidates its growth strategy with a focus on talent development and internationalization, responding to the growing need for specialized legal advice in global contexts and increasingly interconnected markets.
