

Pavia e Ansaldo for 173 MW in grid parity of photovoltaic plants in Italy

Milan, February 21, 2018 – Law firm Pavia e Ansaldo, with a team led by partner Claudio Cera and made up of partner Nico Moravia and associates Laura Zanin, Tommaso Massari and Andrea Baglioni, assisted 15 companies in their investment in the development and installation, in the Lazio Region and in Sardinia, of 19 photovoltaic plants in grid parity, for a total capacity of about 173 MW, owned by funds controlled by Octopus Inv..

This is the first investment in grid parity in Italy. It was accomplished in less than 2 years also thanks to the coordination between Octopus's internal team and the legal team of Pavia e Ansaldo (with Claudio Cera as team leader), which followed the development and completion in all of its stages and aspects.
