

Pavia e Ansaldo for Legalcommunity Week with the round table “The prospects of circular economy in Italy”

Milan, 12 June 2019 – “The prospects of circular economy in Italy” was the topic of the business lunch and round table organized by Law firm Pavia e Ansaldo, in the context of the third edition of the Legalcommunity Week, a week that assembles professionals of the legal field and of the financial community, promoted by LC Publishing Group and with the Sponsorship of the Municipality of Milan.

The workshop, moderated by Andrea Camaiora, an expert in Litigation, Pr and CEO The Skill, featured a number of speakers, leading personalities in the national and international scene, such as Matteo Benozzo and Francesco Bruno, Partners with Law firm Pavia e Ansaldo, Mauro Bombacigno, Head of Engagement BNP Paribas Italia, Marco Codognola, General Manager Environmental Division Itelyum, Chiara Gentile, Member of the Board AIG, Antonio Lazzarinetti, Managing Director Itelyum, Edgar Miller, Head of Legal and Corporate Affairs Enel Green Power, Alessio Minutoli, Senior Vice President Legal, Corporate and Compliance Affairs Italgas, Carlo Occhiena, Digital Retail Manager Axpo Italia and Cosimo Pacciolla, Litigation and Legal Advice Manager & Antitrust Compliance Officer Q8.

“Circular economy will become a real challenge for lawyers in the next few years, raising important issues on the relationship between practice and law, the comprehensiveness of ecological interests and the limits of international soft law regulations in safeguarding companies’ equal opportunities to access resources” – commented Prof. Francesco Bruno, partner with Pavia e Ansaldo.

“We cannot afford to be unprepared in assisting Italian companies when facing the significant changes that have been taking place over these last few years: from climate changes to migratory flows and, last but not least, the need to recover waste and by-products for sanitary and productive reasons”, added Prof. Matteo Benozzo, partner with Law firm Pavia e Ansaldo.
