Nova Capital enters the capital of N.E. Engineering: the Firms

Milan, 27 July 2023 - Studio Legale Pavia e Ansaldo, with a team coordinated by partner Alberto Bianco and formed by Martina Bosi and Arianna Bellani, assisted Pragma Invest, an investment vehicle referable to Nova Capital, in all corporate M&A and banking aspects relating to the investment in the capital of N.E. Engineering S.p.A., a company based in Porcari (LU), leader in the design and manufacture of machinery for the management of complex intra-logistics solutions mainly for the corrugated cardboard industry.

Founded in 1990 by the Belluomini and Papeschi families, NEE develops a wide range of innovative and high-tech solutions for many international clients, including conveyors, palletisers, stackers and pre-feeders.

The tax and financial profiles of the transaction were handled on behalf of the buyer by Studio Spada Partners with teams coordinated by partners Guido Sazbon and Antonio Zecca and comprising Francesco De Buglio, Roberto Oldrati and Emanuele Arpano.

The Belluomini and Papeschi families were assisted by CDI Global, in the person of Paolo Dini, as financial advisor, by the Fiumanò & Partners law firm of Pistoia, and in particular by attorneys Carlo Fiumanò and Francesco Fiumanò, as legal advisors, and by certified public accountants David Ninci and Emanuele Ninci, of the Del Grande Ninci Associati firm of Lucca, for the structuring of the transaction and tax advice.
